Dear

Request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000

Thank you for your request for information received on 25 February 2015, relating to magazines.

I can confirm that Gloucestershire CCG does not hold the following information:

- 1. For the financial years 2013/14 and 2014/15, how much did you spend on buying magazines or magazine subscriptions intended for waiting rooms in GP surgeries and hospitals?
 - Please break this figure down by month and year (e.g. April 2014), name of publication, number of copies purchased and amount spent.
 - Please take the financial year to mean April to March the following year.
 - Please take 2014/15 to mean up until the end of January.
 - If you have subscriptions, please make clear how long the subscriptions are valid for and how many copies of any titles are included.

Gloucestershire CCG does not spend any money buying magazines or magazine subscriptions for these purposes. The GP surgeries and hospital trusts themselves may be able to provide you with the information, for a list of these organisations within the Gloucestershire area please follow the links below:
