Dear

Request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000

Thank you for your request for information received on 10 February 2015, relating to AAC for MND sufferers.

I can confirm that Gloucestershire CCG does not hold the following information:

- What is the average waiting time for MND patients to receive equipment via the centre in Bristol.
whether it is the case that iPads are not supplied to aid communication for MND sufferers, due to the perceived danger of inappropriate usage

NHS England may be able to provide you with the requested information, please follow the link: <http://www.england.nhs.uk/contact-us/foi/>

You are advised that this information is provided in accordance with the Freedom of Information Act 2000 and is for your personal use. Any re-use of this information will be subject to the Re-Use of Public Sector Information Regulations (1 July 2005) and authorisation from the CCG will be required. In the event of any re-use, the information must be reproduced accurately and not used in a misleading manner.

If you are not satisfied with the way in which we have dealt with your request for information, then in accordance with the Act you may ask us to conduct a review of our decision. In which case you should contact me at the above address.

If you remain unhappy with the decision after review you should contact:-

The Information Commissioner's Office
