

Reference: FOI 24217 GLO 11M

Subject: Coeliac Disease

QUESTION	RESPONSE
1. November 2015 – November 2016, Number of patients with Coeliac Disease seen within the Dietetics department.	NHS Gloucestershire Clinical Commissioning Group does not hold the detailed level of information required to respond to this request.
2. The average length of time those patients waited for their appointment and the number queueing waiting for an appointment during that period.	May we suggest that this information is requested from the relevant provider organisations via the following links:
3. November 2016 – November 2017, Number of patients with Coeliac Disease seen within the Dietetics Department.	Gloucestershire Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust - http://www.gloshospitals.nhs.uk/en/Freedom-of-Information/
4. The average length of time those patients waited for their appointment and the number queueing waiting for an appointment during that period.	Gloucestershire Care Services NHS Trust - https://www.glos-care.nhs.uk/about-us/freedom-of-information
5. The number of GP referrals regarding Abdominal Pain / Coeliac Disease (awaiting diagnosis) seen by the Dieticians from November 2015 – November 2016.	Gloucestershire County Council Public Health http://www.gloucestershire.gov.uk/health-and-social-care/public-health/
6. The number of GP referrals regarding Abdominal Pain / Coeliac Disease (awaiting diagnosis) seen by the Dieticians from November 2016 – November 2017.

7. The average waiting time for an outpatient appointment to see a Dietician for each year 2015, 2016, 2017.
8. The current number of GP referrals waiting for an appointment to see a Dietician.
9. How many diagnosed Coeliacs are registered within the Gloucestershire Health Authority Area.
10. How many Coeliacs are diagnosed annually within the Gloucestershire Health Authority Area.

The information provided in this response is accurate as of 17 January 2018, and has been authorised for release by Mark Walkingshaw, Deputy Accountable Officer/Director of Commissioning for NHS Gloucestershire CCG.